A. Write a conversation that you had with a colleague while you were waiting to take an interview for a vacant job that you both applied to. Your name is A and your colleague's name is B. Each one talks eight times. Use contractions and negatives where possible.

Answer key

The answer to this question should include eight turns where A/B may ask B/A questions like:

- Have you been to an interview before?
- Are you nervous? How do you feel?
- Are you ready for the interview?
- What have you prepared for it ?
- What kind of questions do you expect?
- Are you qualified for the job?
- Why do you want to take this job?
- How do you expect them to react?
